NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Senator Daniel Did Not Know That Veterans Would Have Picnic.

VERLY A "SURPRISE PARTY"

Emmett Criddle Was Congratulated by His Friends—Personal and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 112 Hull Street.

Hon. John W. Daniel, the "Lame Lion" of Lynchburg, who spoke to the Confederate Veterans at Forest Hill Park on Thursday, did not know that they contemplated a barbeque and Brunswick stew until he arrived in Richmond on the morning of the day. It was purely by accident that he attended the gathering of the old soldiers—a gathering where he is wont to be on all times—and it was through the instrumentality of Congressman John Lamb that he was present.

Mr. Lamb heard that Senator Daniel was in Richmond, and at once went to see him. He extended him an invitation to come to Forest Hill Park and mingle with the old soldiers who were there that day for a good time.

"But I haven't been invited," said the Senator.

"Yes you have, for I extend to you an invitation, and I speak for thousands of soldiers in Virginia when I do it," said Mr. Lamb.

"Then I'll go to this 'surprise party,'" said the able Virginia orator, and that afternoon he was at the park and spoke to the members of Joseph E. Johnston Camp and to their friends who were assembled.

Criddle Congratulated.

Mr. Robert Emmett Criddle, Past State Commander of Liberty Council No. 15, Junior Order United American Mechanics of Swansboro, who was acquitted of a serious charge before a jury of his peers in Chesterfield county Thursday, was congratulated by hundreds of Manchesterians yesterday.

The majority of those who knew of the case, and who knew the man, were confident that he would be found not guilty when a jury heard the facts, and these friends were glad when they learned of the verdict Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Criddle is one of the oldest Juniors in the State. He was one of the moving spirits in the organization of the auxiliary order, the Daughters of Liberty, and but for envy would next year have been the State commander. He has lived in Swansboro all of his life and is popular with the great majority of those who know him.

The Blair Glass Company.

The charter of the Blair-Ruehl Glass Company, which is located on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad just on the edge of the city limits, has recently been amended, and hereafter the establishment will be known as the Blair Glass Company. Mr. Ruehl will retire from the firm.

Returned From Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adamson and their son, Burnley, have returned from Europe after a visit of nine weeks. They reached the city yesterday. Mrs. Adamson is much improved in health by the trip to England, Scotland, France and Switzerland.

Against the Sweeper.

Mr. J. C. Snellings, druggist, near Third and Hull Streets, has complained to the police against the dust sweeper which Mr. Snellings alleges that the street sweeping machine which goes over Hull Street every night is an annoyance to all of those who live on the thoroughfare.

Chesterfield Court Adjourned.

The September term of the Chesterfield Circuit Court adjourned yesterday. Judge Clifton has been holding court for Judge Watson, who has been ill. The jury at the term of the court has had a bad time to do. The case of Mr. R. E. Criddle occupied much of the time of the court, and when an assistant came on Thursday it was no more than was expected by the friends of the accused.

Personal and Briefs.

Lee Tucker, a white man, was fined $5 in Police Court yesterday for fighting with Cliff Elder. Elder was discharged. It being shown that he had acted only in self-defense.

Mr. Paine Hoxie has returned from Lenoir Hall, Va., after a very pleasant visit.

Mr. B. M. Robertson, wife of Alderman Robertson, of the Fourth Ward, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bridgeforth, in Albemarle county.

THE THEATRES

Academy.

Mattinee—"Julius Caesar."

To-night—"Cymbeline."

Bijou.

Mattinee and Night—"Not Yet But Soon."

"Julius Caesar" was presented at the Academy last night to an audience that filled the galleries, but was light in the orchestra seats. It is strange, but true, that tragedy does not appeal to regular theatre-goers, but the change of the presentation last night was, perhaps, the most elaborate that Richmond has ever seen, for there were super in abundance, who played the rabble or standard soldiers, as the scene demanded. The costumes were fresh, and the scenery in all but the Senate Chamber scene was excellent.

Mr. Hanford, as Marc Antony, was at his best in his speech over the dead body of Caesar, which was exceptionally well rendered, and which deserved the applause with which it was received. Mr. John M. Kline, as Cassius, played excellently throughout the five acts, and Mr. Frank Heining, as Brutus, proved himself an actor of sterling worth.

On Monday night "The Girl Patsy" will be the attraction at the Academy. The play treats of exclusive society in a republic as well as of the life of the play. The principal actors in the piece are: Francis Herford, Orla Helaine Brown, Alice Knowland, Marie Haynes, Grace Smith, Clara Sedgwick, Morris Barr, W. C. Hanford, John Schuman, David Berlin, Charles Seest and Harry G. Griffin.

On Tuesday night Arthur Dunn, the small comedian, who always knows the big chorus girls, will hold sway at the Academy in "The Little Joker." The musical comedy he is said to be amusing and to contain "catchy" music.

"Her Own Way."

"Her Own Way," with Miss Sylvia Lyndon in the leading role, will be seen at the Academy next Wednesday night and night.

It will be remembered that Madeline Elliott made a hit in the play last year, "Zaza," the musical comedy, which will be the attraction at the Academy on Thursday night. Mrs. L. C. Carter made a very successful acting of the modern "Catharine" in the musical comedy, "The Girl of the Year," which opens in Norfolk on Monday night and will play at the Academy next Friday and Saturday nights, with a matinee on Saturday.

"A Square Deal."

"A Square Deal" will hold the board all next week at the Bijou. It is heralded as a political play, and the manager has invited Governor Swanson, Mayor McClellan and other prominent politicians to be present on Monday.

News of the Stage.

Mr. David Bellows wrote his first drama at the age of fourteen. It was called "The Black and the Red" and was a play about a negro and a white man. It was produced in the city of New York.

South for Locals.

William Gillette has again gone to the South. He is on a tour of the "Secret Service." It was reported that he was in the city of New York.

Pawnee Bill's Historic Wild West and Great Far East will be in Richmond on October 1st. The magnitude of this act is known in the world and the largest of its kind in the world and the largest of its kind in the world.

Mr. Pettit Here.

Hon. Pembroke Pettit, member of the House of Delegates from Fluvanna, and ex-Judge J. O. Shepherd, of the same county, called at the Attorney-General's office yesterday. They were here in connection with the appeal from the decision of the State Corporation Commission in the matter of the Fluvanna Railroad. The appeal has not yet been perfected.

Fireworks at Idlewood To-Night.

Manager Wells has arranged for a splendid display of fireworks at Idlewood to-night. It will be a number of set pieces and a large quantity of aerial fireworks. Manager Wells thinks this will be the best display of the season.

Take Up Mail Complaints.

The postmaster of Richmond, it is understood, take up the complaints of inadequate mail service in the western part of the city, and it is believed here that the department is fast remedying the conditions. The trouble are due to the abnormal growth of the extreme western part of the city, and the further fact that the appropriation of carriers was made several years ago, before this development. The truth is, the city has outgrown its present mail collection and delivery facilities, and business men believe that as soon as the department is reformed, it will be able to do so.

INCREASES ITS COAL OUTPUT

Nearly Nine Hundred Thousand Tons Hauled During August by Chesapeake & Ohio.

STEVENS WILL NOT LEAVE

Friend Who Was With Him on Western Trip Says That Harriman Cannot Get Him.

A gentleman who has just returned from the West, where he traveled with George W. Stevens, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, says: "Mr. Stevens has no idea of leaving Richmond. He said: 'I don't believe Mr. Harriman has money enough to make Mr. Stevens leave the Chesapeake and Ohio or Richmond. He is thoroughly attached to the road and to the people among whom he lives, and he has no idea of leaving.'"

In a recent article in the Times-Dispatch it was pointed out that in all probability the Wabash system would attempt to reach Richmond by way of Washington over an electric line, for which power would be furnished by water from the Occoquin and Rappahannock Rivers.

From the West now comes the story that many roads are taking up the matter of operating by electricity on account of the high rate of speed that can be made, and it is stated that the short roads in the West seventy miles an hour is the regular schedule.
